

Fire on The Water 2020

Monday January 13, 2020- Friday January 17, 2020

Fire on the Water 2020 sets sail from Port Canaveral at 4 PM Monday January 13, 2020 for a 5-day cruise aboard Royal Caribbean's' Mariner of the Seas. Once we are out to sea the casino opens! So, enjoy the evening! Tuesday we will arrive at CoCo Cay Bahamas at approximately 7AM and will be docked there until 5 PM. This beautiful port holds lots of surprises, fun in the sea and places to explore. Once you are back onboard, have a fantastic meal in the main dining room, or grab a pizza and a beer and just watch the sunset. Wednesday we will sail into Nassau Bahamas at 8 AM for the full day! This island is fantastic from its beautiful beaches to the excursion for the adventurous. Plenty to do and see. And of course, there is Atlantis! We will be leaving port at 9 PM. That's long enough for dinner and drinks on the island. But do take care to come aboard on time. The night awaits in the casino or at the hot tub. Enjoy dinner in the restaurant, steakhouse or Pizza Pirate. Time to relax and unwind! Thursday we will be cruising all day. This is our seminar day! We will have fun events going on all day for you to enjoy! And finally, this night is our last night at sea. Grab a drink and just watch the ocean float by. Sadly, we arrive back at Port Canaveral at 7 AM Saturday morning.

The new Mariner of the Seas® is loaded with surprises to thrill even the boldest weekend warriors. Launch yourself into a virtual world on a new bungee trampoline experience — Sky PadSM. Hang ten on the newly added FlowRider® surf simulator or race down The Perfect StormSM waterslides. And go head-to-head in a glow-in-the-dark laser tag clash in Battle for Planet ZSM.

Ports of Call

Coco Cay is a private island of Royal Caribbean (company that makes world cruises). Its beaches are beautiful, typical of the Caribbean. The color of the sea is indescribable, it is calm, no waves and the water is warm and clear. CocoCay is located near Nassau in the Bahamas on a set of Islands named Berry Islands. The island was originally called Little Stirrup Cay but after Royal Caribbean took over the lease of the island renamed as Coco Cay. The island is small and it is possible to give a complete turn in less than an hour.

Because of the depth of the water around the island, ships stop a little away from the port. The rest of the route is done by smaller vessels leaving every 15 minutes. However, this route is really fast. The return schedule for the ship varies depending on the chosen cruise.

The island has an excellent infrastructure as in ships. There are chairs, sun loungers, hammocks, bathrooms ... All well maintained and clean. And all colored in an atmosphere quite nice. The food on the island is released and there are bars everywhere which offer various types of drinks.

The drinks are paid except for those who have purchased packages of drinks on the boat. A drink at the swim-up bar in the Bahamas' largest freshwater pool. Or a taste of Bora Bora in the only private overwater cabanas in the Bahamas.

The beach sand is bright but is a little thick. For the wheelchair wheel chains are adapted so that they can walk more easily.

Each beach has a feature. The Barefoot Beach is a quiet beach and away from the island, ideal for those who want to relax. For those who enjoy scuba diving and snorkel should pass on Snorkel Beach. The Snorkel Beach has several choirs and even rest of shipwrecks. Water Sports Beach as the name suggests is ideal for water sports. And finally, the Coconut Willy's Beach is ideal for children and is where the Aqua Park.

Nassau, Bahamas

Nassau, the capital city of The Bahamas, is located on 21-mile-long New Providence, the 11th largest island. Nassau's main harbor is protected by Paradise Island. The harbor attracted settlers in the early days, particularly pirates. In fact, Nassau's population consisted mainly of pirates until 1718, when The Bahamas first Royal Governor, Woodes Rogers expelled them, restored order and built Fort Nassau. The Bahamas for centuries adopted Rogers' motto, "Expulsis Piratis, Restituta Commercium," which means, "Pirates Expelled, Commerce Restored." Now, 212,000 people call New Providence Island home, with a large portion of them residing in Nassau.

Nassau teems with Bahamian and British flavor. The capital city of the Bahamas boasts miles of spectacular beaches and stretches of vivid coral reefs perfect for snorkeling. Shop, dine, and sightsee, particularly along busy Bay Street, or if you're a James Bond fan, visit the British Colonial Hotel, which was used as a filming location for two of the Sean Connery-era movies. Visit during the famed Junkanoo Festival to experience a high-energy parade of spectacularly costumed dancers.
